Attendance, Participation and Classroom Protocol

All students are expected to attend class and contribute regularly to class and group discussions. Students are expected to come to class prepared to discuss the assigned topics; therefore, they should read the assigned chapters prior to class.

Students who miss class are expected to contact the professor and/or a classmate, as all assignments will be distributed in class. In addition, a missed class does not imply an automatic extension on an assignment's due date. All assignments are due on the assigned due dates.

“Appropriate classroom behavior is implicit in the Cedar Crest College Honor Code. Such behavior is defined and guided by the complete protection for the rights of all students and faculty to a courteous, respectful classroom environment. That classroom environment is free from distractions such as late arrivals, early departures, inappropriate conversations and any other behaviors that might disrupt instruction and/or compromise students' access to their Cedar Crest College education.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, page 29)

Please turn off all cell phones prior to the start of class.

Honor Philosophy

“The Cedar Crest Honor Philosophy states that students shall uphold community standards for academic and social behavior in order to preserve a learning environment dedicated to personal and academic excellence. Individuals who accept the honor of membership in the Cedar Crest College community of scholars pledge to accept responsibility for their actions and the effect their actions may have on other members of the College Community.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, page 28)

Academic Dishonesty

Whether “deliberate or accidental, academic dishonesty is a serious academic offense and a violation of the spirit of the Cedar Crest Honor Code.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, page 28)

Any confirmed instance of academic dishonesty can result in a failing grade for this course.

Students with Documented Disabilities

Students with documented disabilities who may need academic accommodations should discuss these needs with the professor during the first two weeks of class. Students with disabilities who wish to request accommodations should contact the Advising Center.

Individual Assignments

Five assignments will be given during the course of the semester. All assignments are due one week after being posted. All assignments to be submitted into the appropriate e-College drop box. Assignments will not be graded before due date.

Marketing Plans

All students will be required to work in teams to create and present a marketing plan. Teams will be selected and products assigned during the third week of class. Team members will evaluate each others’ effort as a part of this process.

Presentation

Each team will present their plan to the class. Presentations should be 20-25 minutes in length. The presentations should not be a recitation of the plan. It should be in executive summary format and relate the research conducted, the goals formulated and strategy to be executed. Each team member should have an equal role in the presentation.

Evaluations

Each team member shall evaluate their teammates on their performance in contributing to the completion of the plan. The Student-Peer evaluation form that is posted on e-College must be used. If a student fails to hand in an evaluation they will receive a ZERO for their evaluation grade for the plan. Evaluations are due when the plan is due. No exceptions.

Late Submissions

Students are expected to submit all assignments on the assigned due date. Students who are absent from class are still responsible for timely submission of assignments. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Exams

There will be no make up exams given. All students must be present for all exams. Confirm the day and time of the final exam before making any travel plans!
