Course Description: A 3-credit interdisciplinary approach to understanding consumer decision making behavior as we become aware of, search out, purchase, evaluate and dispose of products, services, companies and ideas. The student will become familiar with the psychological framework and process consumers use to make decisions, they will explore consumers’ culture and welfare and examine the diffusion of innovation and its impact on purchase and society.

Objectives: By the completion of the course, the student should be able to
- Identify and explain key internal and external influences on consumption decisions
- Explain the consumer decision process
- Strategically understand consumer behavior and its central link to marketing strategy
- Apply concepts, theories, case work and best company practices to understand Brand Image and Advertising in our global market today
- Develop and present a comprehensive marketing plan

Methods: Lecture/In-depth discussion of text, readings/small group assignments and discussions, an individual assignment, comprehensive development and presentation of a Marketing Plan. Instructor will provide commercial product samples for students to examine as we discuss the text and view relevant videos. Students will refer to the text student web site for chapter previews, chapter outlines, internet exercises and a study guide. Students must prepare thoroughly for every class as we will look to include a rich diversity of thought to bear on our assignments. Using the library as a resource will be necessary to stay abreast of recent publications and add value to your Marketing Plan. On-line web site review is required for discussion regarding companies and brands. We will rely on e-college MRK 250-00 for doc sharing, grade book, announcements, Webliography, dropbox etc. Make sure you are in. and the college IT department (x3348) has your correct e-mail address in that system.

Attendance: Attendance is critical to your success in this course. Students are expected to attend and fully participate in class. In the event that you miss a lecture, it is the student’s responsibility to make up work. If an assignment is due the day of the absence, the due date does not change. If you miss more than two classes, you may fail the class. Excused absences are only those that have a submitted doctor’s note. Excused absences count as half an absence.

Honor Philosophy
“The Cedar Crest Honor Philosophy states that students uphold community standards for academic and social behavior in order to preserve a learning environment dedicated to personal and academic excellence. Individuals who accept the honor of membership in the Cedar Crest College community of scholars pledge to accept responsibility for their actions and the effect their actions may have on other members of the College Community.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, p 28)

Academic Dishonesty
Whether “deliberate or accidental, academic dishonesty is a serious academic offense and a violation of the spirit of the Cedar Crest Honor Code.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, p 28). Plagiarism is not tolerated; it will result in a zero on the assignment and will be reported to the Provost.

Students with Documented Disabilities
Students with documented disabilities who may need academic accommodations should discuss these needs with the professor during the first two weeks of class. Students with disabilities who wish to request accommodations should contact the Advising Center.

Late submissions of assignments
Students are expected to submit all assignments on the assigned due date. Students who are absent from class are still responsible for timely submission of assignments. Late submissions will earn half credit if submitted within a week of the assignment, beyond that, assignments earn 0 credit.

Team Presentations and Peer Review
Each student is expected to make team presentations. Presentation aids may be used and these aids may be technological or conventional (hand outs, posters, power point etc.) Peer review involves reviewing the work and contributions of those in your assigned group as well as your classmates as a whole.

Evaluation: Grades will be determined based on the following:

Assignments: Consumer Behavior will be divided into teams that will work together for the entirety of the semester. By the end of Class 1 (1/20), each team will have chosen a brand for their Marketing Plan. The Marketing Plan will follow a structure provided in class; at least 2 scholarly and 2 popular sources are required to lend support to the Plan and lead to growth over a three year period. Works cited is a required page at the end of the Plan; use the MLA as your format. You may refer to “easy bib” to help you format your sources. Students will complete an individual assignment, either a 1-3 page paper, a video or a concept board on a chapter topic of interest supported by external research (2 scholarly, 2 popular). Use MLA format and attach a works cited page. Two exams are scheduled. Advertising Age reading and article presentation is required. Each week, individual students will read and prepare comments regarding a recent Advertising Age story.

Marketing Plan Presentation Overview

Each team will hand in an electronic and hard copy version of the Marketing Plan. The electronic version should be to me 24 hours in advance of your presentation. The hard copy is due in class on the presentation date. Each group will present their marketing plan to the class. Presentations should be 20 minutes in length, and be presented by the each member of the group. Presentation should cover all of the functional areas of the marketing plan. The presentation should conclude with the team making a persuasive argument for implementing their recommendations for growth. You will evaluate other members of your Brand team as a factor in the Brand Marketing Plan grade.
