COLLABORATIVE PARTNERSHIPS IN INCLUSIVE SETTINGS

Course Number: SPE 546

Semester Hours: Three

Prerequisites: SPE 544; SPE 345 or as approved by the instructor

Limitations on Enrollment: 25

Required:

Catalog Description: This course will explore the theory and practice of professional teamwork to facilitate inclusionary school practices. This course is appropriate for special education, general education, related services, and other support staff. Participants will be introduced to best practice strategies to building collaborative relationships for including students with disabilities in general education classrooms. personnel for collaborative consultation and teamwork in serving the needs of students. Context, process, and content of collaborative partnerships strategies for adults and students are presented.

Classroom Protocol: Appropriate classroom behavior is implicit in the Cedar Crest College Honor Code. Such behavior is defined and guided by complete protection for the rights of all students and faculty to a courteous, respectful classroom environment. That environment is free from distractions such as late arrivals, early departures, inappropriate conversations and any other behavior that might disrupt instruction and/or compromise students' access to their Cedar Crest College education

Furthermore: Students are expected to have prompt and regular classroom attendance in accordance with the policy stated on the syllabus.

Honor Philosophy: The Cedar Crest College Honor Philosophy is based upon the principle that, as a self-governing body, students have the ability to create an atmosphere of trust and support. Within this environment, individuals are empowered to make their own decisions, develop personal regard for the system under which they live, and achieve a sense of integrity and judgment that will guide them through life.

N. B.: In order to ensure full class participation, any student with a disabling condition requiring special accommodations (e.g., tape recorders, special adaptive equipment, special note-taking or test-taking procedures) will be strongly encouraged to contact the professor or instructor at the beginning of the course. For the student's convenience, both the professor's/instructor's office hours and telephone number will be listed on the syllabus. Please note that various services on campus, including The Advising Center.

Academic integrity and ethics remain steadfast, withstanding technological change. CCC academic standards, therefore, apply to all academic work including, but not limited to, handwritten or computer-generated documents, video or audio recordings, and telecommunications. The entire Honor Philosophy and description of the community standards for academic conduct can be found in the Customs Book.

Attendance Policy: This graduate level course is taught through discussion and group process orientation. In order to gain the full breadth of this course, it is imperative students attend all classes. Students earn points by completing in-class and out of class assignments. Attendance and participation is mandatory in order to accomplish the requirements of the course. Assignments are due on scheduled dates. Absences of greater than clock-hours will significantly impact a student's grade. Excused and unexcused absences will result in the loss of points. Absences do not alter the date in which assignments are due.

Final Exam: Your obligations for this course include attendance at the final exam, on the day and time scheduled by the Registrar's Office. You should not make travel arrangements until the final exam schedule is published; if you must make plans early, you should schedule your travel after the last final exam day.
