Leadership Challenge Workbook

www.wsj.com/student

Course Description: A 3-credit interdisciplinary approach to exposing the student to effective leadership, what leaders do, what constituents expect, the leadership process, vision and sharing vision, power and influence, enabling others and encouraging from the heart. An in depth look at ethical leadership and diversity; understand how gender issues have been studied and their findings, and understanding cross-cultural leadership.

Objectives: By the completion of the course, the student should be able to
- Identify and explain effective leadership traits
- Identify the students personal best leadership project to date and where they aspire to be as a leader in the future
- Intuitively understand leadership behavior and its central link to corporate strategy, volunteer projects and life
- Apply concepts, theories, case work and best company practices to understand leadership and influence in our global market today
- Work collaboratively within a group to report current WSJ developments regarding leadership

Methods: Lecture/In-depth discussion of text, case readings/small group assignments and discussions, an individual assignment, and video viewing: CEO Exchange. Students will use the Leadership Challenge Workbook to record and reflect rich insights that come from reflection and analysis in their own career and life’s leadership. This workbook includes steps and key criteria to select the semester end presentation “Personal Best Leadership Project”. Students must prepare thoroughly for every class as we will look to include a rich diversity of thought to bear on our assignments. Using the WSJ and the library as a resource will be necessary to stay abreast of recent developments and add value to your workbook assignment and individual assignment. On-line web site review is required for discussion regarding companies and leadership. We will rely on e-college BUA 350 for doc sharing, grade book, announcements etc. Make sure you are in. and the college IT department (x3348) has your correct e-mail address.
Attendance: Attendance is critical to your success in this course. Students are expected to attend and fully participate in class. In the event that you miss a lecture, it is the student’s responsibility to make up work. If an assignment is due the day of the absence, the due date does not change. If you miss more than two classes, you may fail the class. Excused absences are only those that have a submitted doctor’s note. Excused absences count as half an absence.

Honor Philosophy
“The Cedar Crest Honor Philosophy states that students uphold community standards for academic and social behavior in order to preserve a learning environment dedicated to personal and academic excellence. Individuals who accept the honor of membership in the Cedar Crest College community of scholars pledge to accept responsibility for their actions and the effect their actions may have on other members of the College Community.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, p 28)

Academic Dishonesty
Whether “deliberate or accidental, academic dishonesty is a serious academic offense and a violation of the spirit of the Cedar Crest Honor Code.” (Cedar Crest College Catalog, p 28) Plagiarism will result in a zero score on any assignment, will be reported to the Business Chair and may lead to an F for the course.

Students with Documented Disabilities
Students with documented disabilities who may need academic accommodations should discuss these needs with the professor during the first two weeks of class. Students with disabilities who wish to request accommodations should contact the Advising Center.

Late submissions of assignments
Students are expected to submit all assignments on the assigned due date. Students who are absent from class are still responsible for timely submission of assignments. Late submissions will earn half credit if submitted within a week of the assignment, beyond that, assignments earn 0 credit.
